Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-25 drawn to beadlets comprising stavudine, classified in class 514, subclass 50.
  - II. Claims 26-30 drawn to a method for treating a retroviral infection with stavudine and optionally with an additional antiretroviral agent, classified in class 514, subclass 46+.
  - III. Claims 31-34 drawn to a process for preparing a stavudine composition classified in class 424, subclass 489+.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Groups I and II are related as product and process for using, wherein any number of alternative anti-retroviral agents can be set forth as seen in the patent literature.
3. Groups I, II and III are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the process of U.S. Patent 6,486,136 could be used to make a controlled release composition for use to treat a retroviral infection.
4. Groups II and III are related as unrelated methods. The manner in which the composition to be used in the method of Group III is made is not seen to be of patentable import. The record does not indicate that these methods must be practiced together, and the modes of operation, one is a synthetic mode of operation and the other is a chemotherapeutic mode of action. Group III functions to produce a product, while Group II functions to provide a therapeutic effect.

Art Unit: 1623

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species 1 - didanosine, class 514, subclass 263.38.

Species 2- [3S-(3R*,8R*,9R*,12R*)]-3,12 Bis.....pentraazaretetradecanedioic acid dimethyl ester, class 560, class 4.

Species 3- indinavir, class 546, subclass 276.

Species 4- iodenosine, class 424, subclass 1.45.

A search of Groups I-III together along with stavudine and the divergently classified medicament species cited supra would impose a burden on the examiner in charge of this application.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 23 and 28 are generic.

7. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

8. Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

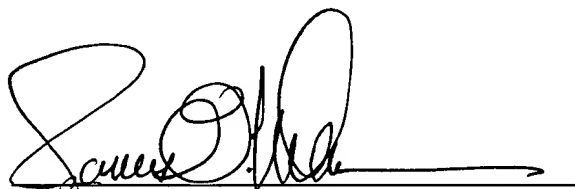

Art Unit: 1623

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
